The Library Foundation of Carver County is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to support system-wide Carver County Library programs and services that are not funded with local tax dollars.

Foundation funding priorities for 2008 include the Summer Reading Program, Hot Reads for Cold Nights, and a new outreach program that brings the library to senior housing residents.

To further support the Library Foundation's efforts or for more information, please visit our web page at www.carverlib.org or contact Leanne Brown at 227-7604.
